

11th January

The mental health benefits of engagement with nature – from infant to pensioner.

Damian Haasjes

Head of Business Development and Community Engagement – Wiltshire Wildlife Trust

8th February

Stumperies, ferns and shady friends

Andrew Tolman

Andrew has over 30 years gardening experience, including 10 years at Highgrove looking after the

Re-starting

12th April.

Pollinators and plants -what can we do?

Alan Cooper

With all of the reports in the news about reduction of insects, Alan will discuss some of the issues of declining pollinator populations and what can be done to increase the biodiversity in our gardens .

12th April

The Life of a Victorian Gardener

Francis Burroughes

Hear about the fascinating life of the Victorian country estate, which has now entirely vanished .

10th May

Visit to Great Chalfield Manor

The gardens were created 1907-11.. They have been gradually replanted using palettes of colours sympathetic to the original.

Meet at the Village Hall at 5pm to share lifts. Teas & coffees (£5) can be ordered in advance.

21st May am

Garden Club Plant Sale

A bring-& buy sale of plants with tea & cake

14th June

A visit to Derry Watkins' garden & nursery

An introductory talk by Derry Watkins followed by a chance to look round her garden and nursery.

Members: £5; visitors £7.50 .

Meet at the Village Hall at 4.45pm to share lifts.

12th July

Local garden visits in Great Cheverell

Take a look at some more local gardens.

9th August

Garden Club Mini – Fun Show

What flowers and produce could you bring to contribute to this good-natured competition?

13th September

Visit to Poulshot Nursery

This is a wholesale commercial nursery.

Bargain plants for sale!

Meet at the Village Hall at 6pm to share lifts.

11th October

Scents and scentsibility

Kari-Astri Davis

Scented plants & garden smells. Familiar and unfamiliar plants. Kari-Astri has been collecting (& killing she says) plants for over 30 years. She writes for Landscape magazine. .

8th November

Beyond sustainable, towards regenerative

Lucy Bates

Lucy Bates is Nature Recovery Champion for Wiltshire Wildlife Trust. She has been working towards sustainable land use and food production since 1995.

13th December

Annual Review and Christmas Party

Food, mulled wine, quiz, carols and camaraderie

Club Chairman:

Debbie Brace 825573

Committee Members:

Pauline Jenkinson	813775
Gill Stevens	816218
Stephanie Nichols	812622
Peter Fanshawe	812277
Caroline Wilkinson	813431
Helen Hall	816983

Meetings are held in Great Cheverell Village Hall
at 7.15 for 7.30pm

All evenings include a raffle for a donated prize to help swell club funds.

New members are always welcome.

Membership costs just £10 single or £18 double for the year.

The charge for non-members is
£2 per meeting.

2022 Programme

